

About Fort Bend Transit

About Us

Fort Bend County officially formed a Public Transportation Department in June 2005. We are a general public transportation provider operating Demand Response and Commuter Park and Ride.

In 2022, Fort Bend Transit provided more than 228,000 trips and registered more than 2,000 new clients.

We receive funding through the Federal Transit Administration (FTA), the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT), and partnerships with organizations such as the Cities of Rosenberg, Richmond, and Sugar Land.
